Radey Law Firm Summer 2026 Law Clerk Program

Radey Law Firm, based in Tallahassee, Florida, is seeking a 2L within the top 20% class rank to join our team in the summer of 2026. The intern will have the opportunity to work directly with senior shareholders of the firm on a daily basis, including a rotation through the firm's various practice areas. The firm will make every effort to expose its interns to the practice of law, including attendance at hearings, depositions or other proceedings to the extent that such events can be accommodated with the intern's schedule.

For more than twenty years, Radey Law Firm has been an AV-rated firm consisting of lawyers who practice in a wide variety of complex administrative and regulatory practice areas in the heart of Florida's capital. Radey Law Firm is ranked by Best Lawyers as a Tier 1 firm in the Tallahassee metropolitan area for: Administrative/Regulatory Law, Employment Law - Management, Litigation - Labor and Employment, Insurance Law, and Utilities Law. The intern can expect to be exposed to shareholders in each of these practice areas, so that interns can gain valuable experiences in a collegial work environment.

Required: Top 20% Class Rank

Preferred: Law Review or Journal; Moot Court or Mock Trial
