Florida Bar Board Certified

Brittany Adams Long practices primarily in the area of Florida Administrative Law and Litigation, with an emphasis on cases involving public procurement, rule challenges, public records, and the Sunshine Law. Ms. Long represents both private clients and governmental agencies before the Division of Administrative Hearings and Florida appellate courts. Ms. Long is Board Certified by the Florida Bar in the area of State & Federal Government and Administrative Practice.

Ms. Long joined the Radey Law Firm after serving as an assistant general counsel for the Department of Management Services where she focused on advising the state and departmental purchasing departments on matters relating to procurement. This included working on bid protests, drafting statutory language, and reviewing and negotiating contracts.

Ms. Long also has significant experience in appellate law. After spending two years as a law clerk to the Honorable Robert T. Benton, Ms. Long worked for three years in the appellate section of the prosecution services unit of the Department of Health. In that role, Ms. Long served as appellate counsel to the Department in over 50 license disciplinary cases, including responding to petitions for review of emergency suspension orders.

Ms. Long graduated with high honors from the Florida State University College of Law in 2001, where she was editor-in-chief of the Florida State University Law Review. She received her undergraduate degree from Florida State University in 1998, with a double major in Psychology and Criminology and a certificate in the Juvenile Justice Role Model Program.
