Of Counsel Donna E. Blanton practices in the areas of Florida administrative law and appellate advocacy, with an emphasis on cases involving public procurement, rule challenges, professional licensing and discipline, and affordable housing. Ms. Blanton is Board Certified by The Florida Bar in the area of State and Federal Government and Administrative Practice.

Ms. Blanton has represented corporate, non-profit, and government clients in public procurement cases, both at the administrative hearing level and on appeal. Among the entities she has represented in bid protest proceedings are Cheney Brothers, Inc.; Trinity Services Group; Microsoft Corporation; Houghton Mifflin Harcourt; CVS Caremark; Express Scripts; Health Management Systems, Inc.; Atlantic Pacific Communities; Housing Trust Group; Health Information Designs, Inc.; the Florida Housing Finance Corporation; Mae Volen Senior Center, Inc.; LabWare, Inc.; the North American Family Institute, Inc.; Aquatic Plants of Florida, Inc.; General Electric Company; the Florida Department of Corrections; the Florida Department of Children and Families; the Florida Department of Health; and the Florida Lottery.

A former law clerk to the chief justice of the Florida Supreme Court, Ms. Blanton has been involved in appeals on behalf of a number corporate and government clients, including Bell-South Telecommunications, Inc.; Health Options, Inc. (a subsidiary of Blue Cross Blue Shield of Florida); the Biscayne Bay Pilots Association; the Florida Beer Wholesalers Association; the Florida Thoroughbred Breeders' and Owners' Association; General Electric Company; Bristol-Myers Squibb Co.; American Bankers Insurance Co.; the Seminole County School Board; the Broward County School Board; Service Insurance Co.; United Wisconsin Insurance Co., and Flo-Sun, Inc. She has prepared amicus briefs on behalf of a number of clients, including Florida Power & Light Company; the Florida Telecommunications Industry Association; the Florida Homebuilders Association, the Florida Association of Realtors; and the Florida Trucking Association. Much of Ms. Blanton's appellate experience has been in high-profile cases, including the 2000 Florida presidential election controversy. She participated extensively in all of the major state court cases involving the 2000 presidential election as a part of the legal team representing Florida's Secretary of State.

Ms. Blanton has written a number of scholarly articles about Florida administrative procedure, several of which have been cited by Florida appellate courts. See, e.g., Florida Dep't of Business & Prof. Reg. v. Investment Co. of Palm Beach, 747 So. 2d 374, 383 n.7 (Fla. 1999); State Bd. of Trustees of the Internal Improvement Trust Fund v. Day Cruise Ass'n, 794 So. 2d 696, 700 n.4 (Fla. 1st DCA 2001); Department of Corrections v. Saulter, 742 So. 2d 368, 370 (Fla. 1st DCA 1999). In 1995-96, Ms. Blanton served as executive director of the Governor's Administrative Procedure Act Review Commission, which recommended a rewrite of the Florida APA that was adopted by the Legislature in 1996. Ms. Blanton's administrative law practice includes rule challenge proceedings at the Division of Administrative Hearings, proceedings involving a regulated person's or entity's substantial interests, declaratory statement petitions, variance and waiver petitions, as well as bid disputes.

In February of 2015, Ms. Blanton was selected by the Department of Health's Office of Compassionate Use to serve as the Florida administrative law expert on the negotiation team that developed a draft rule for the cultivation, processing, and dispensing of low-THC cannabis.

Ms. Blanton graduated with high honors from the Florida State University College of Law in 1992, where she was editor-in-chief of the law review. She earned her undergraduate degree in journalism, with honors, from the University of Florida in 1977. Before attending law school, she was bureau chief for The Orlando Sentinel in the paper's Tallahassee office. Ms. Blanton was named to Florida Trend Magazine's annual listing of Florida Legal Elite in 2005, 2006, 2007, 2009, 2012, 2016, 2017, and 2019. She also was named in Florida Super Lawyers in 2006, 2007, 2008, 2009, 2010, 2011, 2012, 2013, 2014, 2015, 2016, 2017, 2018, and 2019, and recognized in the 2008, 2010, 2011, 2012, 2013, 2014, 2015, 2016, 2017, 2018, and 2019 editions of The Best Lawyers in America in the area of Administrative Law.
